Incident: Bomb Threat

On the above date and time, the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office was notified by the Gray - New Gloucester High School Administrative Staff of a Bomb Threat to the High School.

School officials were notified that a note was left in one of the bathrooms indicating a bomb threat to the school. It was decided by those officials to be proactive, and evacuated the high school. With the assistance of the Portland Police Department and Maine State Police Bomb K9's, the entire building was searched and no explosive device(s) were located.

School Officials resumed school activities.

This is still an ongoing investigation being conducting by the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office.
