Press Release

Cumberland County Sheriff's Office 5-K Fugitive Fun Run

On August 28th, 2010, at 900a.m., the Sheriff's Office will be holding its 2nd Annual 5-K Fugitive Run in Gorham. Proceeds from this event will be donated to Family Crisis Services, a domestic violence project which serves victims and survivors in Cumberland and Sagadahoc Counties.

The 3.1 mile road race begins and ends at the Gorham Municipal Center, located at 75 South Street in Gorham. Pre-registration cost is $17.00, while Race Day registration fees are $22.00.

Awards will be given to Civilian and Public Safety personnel in many different categories. Come join us for a great time!

Family Crises Services strives to provide safe and accessible services to all victims/survivors of domestic violence regardless of race, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, gender, age, primary language spoken, or immigration status. FCS provides a 24 hour Hotline, an emergency shelter for battered women and their children, support groups in Portland, Bath and Bridgton, Outreach programs in Portland, Brunswick and Bridgton, and a transitional services program, as well as an extensive educational program.
