PRESS RELEASE

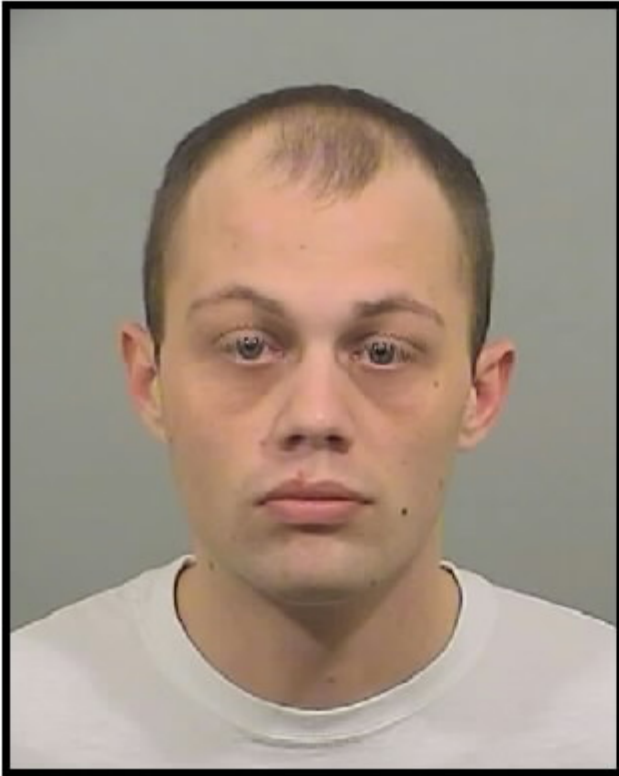

February 24, 2010

At approximately 10:15, on February 24, 2010, Nicolas Gladu (DOB 11-19-1983), from Portland, a Work Release Inmate walked away from the Cumberland County Community Corrections Center. Upon notification, Corrections staff along with management, immediately responded and Gladu was apprehended less than a mile from the jail by two Corrections Captains. The entire incident happened within a half hour.

Gladu is serving a 90 day sentence for a Class C Theft charge and due to be released in May. He could face additional charges.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact Major Francine Breton at 774-5939, extension 2107.
