Press Release

On Friday, September 25, 2009, at 11:58am, inmate Peter Hoyt jump approximately 7-8 feet from the top of the stairs onto a table and then fell to the floor at the Cumberland County Jail. Hoyt was taken to Maine Medical Center at approximately 12:15pm for precautionary measures. He was returned to the jail at approximately 2:15pm with no injuries. He has been placed on a suicide watch and will be housed in the medical unit for observation.

Hoyt is a Portland resident being held for violation of conditional release for Burglary class C, Theft and Criminal Mischief.

An investigation will be conducted into the incident. No other inmates were involved.

Any questions can be directed to Sheriff Mark Dion at 774-1444 ext. 2115.
