Press Release

April 16, 2009

Cumberland County Corrections Sergeant, Charles Ryder Jr., 36 years of age from Falmouth, was arrested today at the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office on a warrant for Criminal Threatening.

The warrant stems from an incident that occurred at the Cumberland County Jail early Tuesday morning when Ryder attempted to bail out his girlfriend who had been arrested for Operating Under the Influence by a local police department. Ryder, who was also intoxicated, became enraged when Bail Commissioner William Gorham would not allow Ryder to bail his girlfriend from jail due to his intoxicated state. Ryder also threatened corrections staff during the incident.

Ryder is being held at the York County Jail on $20,000.00 cash bail.

Ryder's mug shot can be obtained by calling CCJ Intake at 774-1444 ext. 2139.

For further information, please contact Chief Deputy Kevin Joyce at 774-1444, Extension 2115.
