Press Release from
January 22, 2010

On January 21st the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department arrested Roberta Robertshaw, a (27) twenty seven year old female from the Town of Baldwin, Maine charging her with Manslaughter and Aggravated Operating Under the Influence.

The arrest was made after a three month investigation into the manner and cause of a Fatal Motor Vehicle Accident that occurred on Route #25 in Standish on October 14th, 2009 killing (76) seventy six year old Gilbert Howard of Standish.

The investigation determined that Robertshaw had been under the influence of several narcotics at the time of the crash which included Methadone. Robertshaw is expected to be arraigned in Cumberland County Unified Court at 1pm today.

At this time no further details of the investigation are being released pending Robertshaw's arraignment.

A booking photo of Robertshaw can be obtained by contacting the jail at 774-1444 ext. 2138.

For questions regarding this press release, please contact Capt. Jeff Davis at 774-1444 ext. 2222.
